ferme de Montagne

A SPACIOUS & CHARMING OLD FARMHOUSE

the building

Ferme de Montagne is located in Les Gets in the French Alps just 1 hour from Geneva. A spacious & charming old farmhouse with 8 luxury double bedrooms (all ensuite) with stunning views of the mountains, the valley, piste & pine forests.

Fully renovated in the original style of this valley

You might be able to see the wood shingles on the roof even with a couple of feet of snow on it. The construction includes gutters carved out of wood, original massive stone-built walls on the ground floor, hefty wooden windows and wood cladding in the old style.

Inside, the floors are of old stone from Burgundy, and in the bedrooms the floors are old oak. Enjoy the wood burning fireplaces in the main living room and on the ground floor, the big old style radiators, huge heavy enamel baths to soak in, fluffy towels & robes and the most comfortable beds in the world.

Enjoy the comfort of one of our three sitting areas, two with large old fashioned log-fires. Our resident therapist will provide a range of pampering treatments and massage in the special treatment area. People also love the sauna and outdoor jacuzzi with its wonderful views of the valley and piste.

the cuisine

Dinner is 4 courses of interesting, inventive dishes. There is always a choice, and we are also happy to cook your favourite dishes for you.

Light, interesting & innovative food, with a strong French / European influence.
Local produce, herbs & fresh organic ingredients are key to all our menus.

Our staff know the resort area well, are experienced skiers & will be glad to help you plan your holiday with us.

If you choose to email us or use the online form we will do our utmost to get back to you the same day.

WOULD YOU LIKE TO BOOK THE WHOLE CHALET ?

We would be delighted to discuss a package to suit you. Normally this includes a fully staffed chalet, gourmet cuisine, ski guiding and exclusive use of the chalet for up to 18 people.

WE LOVE CHILDREN MOST OF THE TIME !

■ We love children, and so do our guests, but there are times, we know, when even parents appreciate a break. So we have a few weeks set aside for adults where there will be not a sound from children.

■ Children are, however, more than welcome in special CHILDREN'S WEEKS, when we do our utmost to look after them and indeed their parents, who will find that they can spend many hours out on the slopes alone while their children are having the most fun possible in a carefully supervised environment.

■ 5 to 7 children's weeks during the season.

A PERFECT LOCATION & WONDERFUL SKIING

the ski domain

Ferme de Montagne is located just across the road from the ski lift, taking you into the Portes du Soleil, the largest ski domain in France and one of the most varied in Europe. The Portes du Soleil stretches from Les Gets eastwards towards Chatel on the Franco-Swiss border, and across to Champoussin and Champéry in Switzerland.

650 kms of groomed piste (and off piste if you are so inclined) where you can travel across snowy borders with not a border post in sight.

That means a different ski landscape every day of your stay, if you are after variety, and skiing that varies both in difficulty (or ease) and nature, from the romantic (gentle narrow runs through thick forest) to the exhilarating (fast wide and narrow runs above and below the tree line).

Our snow record - what the locals say -

Mark Dean, a longtime Les Gets skier, says :
"I've been skiing for 20 years and the last 8 have been in Les Gets. It's a brilliant area for mixed abilities since you can go to the top of many runs, and all end up at the same place at the bottom. I also find the off-piste skiing very extensive and under-used. It's not tracked out by 9.30 am on the first morning after a snowfall. Mont Chery has got one of the best 'bump slopes' (mogul runs) and the 'Bouquetin' run on Mont Chery North is as steep and challenging as the wall in Switzerland."

No inflated ski pass costs here:

a 5 day pass costs approx. 140 €, plus a Weekend pass for approx. 28 €, with 33% reduction for children.

The lift system is not only well-maintained but also well managed.

Mountain coffee shops and restaurants are to be found everywhere, (serving essential vin chaud, of course) whenever you feel like a pause...

les gets

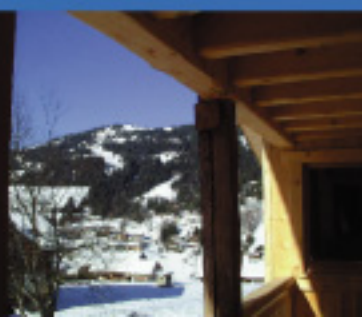

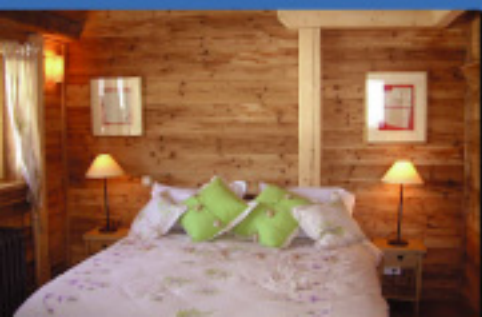

Les Gets is a small original 12th century mountain village in a pass, whose population peaked at 1300 people in its farming heyday at the end of the 19th century.

The village has come to know that its most precious asset is you, the visitor, and all the shop keepers, ski instructors, bar owners and lift staff make every effort to look after you and offer you the kind of experience that will hopefully bring you back the following season.

This is a gently sophisticated and understated resort.

A little chic international shopping here, with the sports and clothing shops offering the best of winter brands at less than Paris or Geneva prices, and managing to slip in a little Prada and friends.

Nightlife is limited to a number of friendly bars, with only one nightclub (established 1932) which is a blast from the past, but still buzzing most nights until 5 am. It is this very understatement that attracts winter visitors season after season.

so much more than simply skiing ... an understated resort village with great charm
